

St. Joseph's to Host Annual Alzheimer's and Diversity Conference for Caregivers

Barrow Neurological Institute at St. Joseph's Hospital and Medical Center will host its fourth annual Caregiver and Diversity Conference on Saturday, Dec. 6 from 7:15 a.m. to 3 p.m. at St. Joseph's in Phoenix.

The conference will provide people who care for loved ones with Alzheimer's disease and other types of dementia information about culture and diversity in caregiving. Speakers will address topics that include:

- Normal aging vs. Alzheimer's disease
- A caregiver's role in the management of Alzheimer's disease
- Understanding culture and diversity in caregiving
- Ethical issues when caring for someone with Alzheimer's disease
- Nutrition information

A panel discussion and presentations from physicians, attorneys and caregivers will also take place during the conference.

To register for the conference, contact Lindsey Kerby by calling 602-406-3067 or e-mailing Lindsey.Kerby@chw.edu. There is a $10 registration fee.
